EXHIBITION

Register today to attend the exhibition and unique 'networking' event for the global hazardous area industry - receive a complimentary show guide!

Time has been scheduled for you to gain entrance to the event and view the very latest products & services that are on show at this international hazardous area Forum.

Attendance via this special invitation does not allow access to the Conference or the Gala Dinner, but will, however, offer you the opportunity to meet representatives from each of the companies exhibiting and take in the most recent developments in hazardous area plant, equipment and services.

Only those who have registered will be allowed access to the exhibition, you can do it on the day but pre-registration is preferred. All pre-registered visitors will receive a show guide and access to the exhibition – see the website for more details or book online. Alternatively, book to come as a conference delegate!

This year's Conference has been planned with the very specific needs of end users in mind and offers a very practical viewpoint with end user case studies. Can you afford to miss out on hearing the views of the leading authorities in this field? See www.hazardexonthenet.net for details of the exhibitor list, the conference programme and package details.

CONFERENCE

Delegate packages are available and include all meals and refreshments. Book for both days and you get a fully inclusive package of accommodation and a place at the Gala Dinner with entertainment. To view the Conference programme and to book your place as a delegate, please visit: www.hazardexonthenet.net or call Russell Goater on +44 (0) 1732 359990

Please remember, access to the Exhibition at HazardEx 2014 will only be allowed through the formal registration process. No one will be allowed entry into the event unless they have booked into the Conference or registered as an exhibition visitor. You must complete the Registration Form or via www.hazardexonthenet.net fax a copy through to +44 (0) 1732 770049 or post to address given below.

Still the only event to attend to hear indispensable advice and standard updates from the top authorities in the hazardous area industry, when complying with regulation requirements. The event has a comprehensive two-day conference programme to help you to put theory into practice with regards to the new regulations, as well as expert advice on functional safety systems (IEC61508 and 61511) and safety integrity levels (SIL's). One of the features of the conference is the ability to put your questions to the specialists, creating a working forum that provides practical answers.

EXHIBITORS INCLUDE: Event Sponsors Intertek; R. Stahl Other Exhibitors Beamex UK; C&P Engineering Services; Chilworth Technology; Denios; Draeger; GSE Systems; Hima Sella; Long O Donnell; Newson Gale; Norgren; Petrel; Rembe; Scattergood & Johnson; SGS Baseefa; Siemens; Sira Consulting; Terrington Data Management; Werma UK
